Shady Grove Campus, MD (NCI)

The NIH Shady Grove campus will be celebrating Earth Day on Thursday, April 26, 2018. These interactive events are open to all NCI staff, as well as children.

A variety of events will be held in room TE-406 from 11am to 1pm. The activities include demonstrations of bird feeders made from recycled objects, a butterfly habitat, the weather, and other hands-on activities. There will be several safety activities including a fire extinguisher simulator and an introduction to hands-only CPR and how to use an AED.

Green Roof presentations will take place in room 3E030 at 10:00, 10:30, 11:00, and 11:30.
