

NIEHS, Research Triangle Park, NC

April 14, 2017

NIEHS Earth Day Seminar: (Sub) Antarctica: a story of - TIONS”

1:00 pm – 2:00 pm

Keystone Campus, Room KS1003 AB

Description: NIEHS employee Stephanie Holmgren will share stories from her 18-day trip to several subantarctic islands and the Antarctic Peninsula. Come learn about exploration, glaciation, faunation, and conservation in the region. Her presentation will obviously include photos and videos of cute critters and spectacular scenery.

April 19, 2017

OD Seminar: Ecotoxicology, Wildlife Conservation, and Implications for the Health of Indigenous Peoples.

10:00 am- 11:00 am

Main Campus, Rodbell Auditorium B

Description: Dr. Frank von Hippel will discuss two community-based participatory research projects and the potential health and environmental implications of each.

April 19, 2017

Campus Botanical Walk around the Lake (Provided by EPA)

11:00 am- 12:00 pm

Meet at EPA patio then depart onto Discovery Lake trail

Description: This is an informative nature walk given by retired EPA naturalist Pete Shubert. Pete will discuss the various types of native and non-native plants found around the campus Lake.

April 21, 2017

NIEHS Earth Day Seminar: Pollinator Triple Header

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Main Campus Rodbell Auditorium A

Summary: NIEHS’s Paul Poliachik will discuss wildflower prairie as habitat for bees, NIEHS’s Dr. David Kurtz will share his beekeeping experiences and EPA’s Dr. David Lehmann will discuss a citizen science project to engage beekeepers about biomarkers as indicators of colony health.

May 10, 2017

NIEHS Earth Day Outing: Adopt-A-Hwy Litter Collection

11:30 pm – 1:00 pm

Volunteers meet at NIEHS Rall Building Front Patio

Summary: NIEHS-sponsored roadside litter collection on 1.2 mile stretch of Hopson road between Davis Drive and Hwy 55 in Research Triangle Park next to campus.