

IC “I Spy” Recycling Activity

- Do you know what . . .

- Commingled is? Hint: plastic, metal, glass recycling
 - And what the commingled label looks like? Hint: check out your nearest bin or up close here > <http://www.nems.nih.gov/programs/WM/Pages/Recycling.aspx>
- The recycling setup looks like at NIH events? Hint: like this

- Do you know where . . .

- Your nearest mixed paper and commingled recycle bins are?
- The NIH Waste Disposal Guide is hanging in your lab?
- NEMS is on the web? Hint: You’re on it! Bookmark it (P.S. visit homepage for program announcements and updates, www.nems.nih.gov)
- The NIH Waste Disposal Guide is online? Hint: Here > http://www.nems.nih.gov/programs/WM/Documents/Waste_Disposal_Guide.pdf

- Did you know that . . .

- Your blue bin must be emptied into a common area recycle bin?
 - And that you can use a smaller trash can? Like this

- Many recyclables still end up in regular trash?
 - Let’s make a pact to . . .
 - Reduce the amount of waste we generate.
 - Reuse things (NIH FreeStuff <https://stuff.nih.gov/Home.aspx>)
 - Make Green Purchases
 - And Recycle.
 - Secret Code Phrase—“My impact matters”
 -  Email Ariell Lawrence with this Secret Code Phrase, ariell.lawrence@nih.gov*